Dear [Redacted]

It was good to hear from you, and most encouraging to see that a step, even if it be only a small one, has been taken in the direction away from the continued snow-balling of Big Federal Government.

Would you consider doing me a favor and using your influence to obtain for me an autographed, 8" x 10", photo of J. Edgar Hoover (mat finish rather than glossy).

Please drop in to see me when next you are in Baltimore.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
Director of the FBI
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

We have the highest regard for Mr. D. M. Ladd who now lives in nearby Geneva following many years with the FBI.

He has given considerable time during the past few months in speaking about UNESCO before Seminole County P-TA groups, most of which have withdrawn from the State and National Congresses of P-TA.

We know that our Congressman Syd Herlong, Jr. respects his judgment, as do most--if not all--who have heard him speak.

This morning a group of us were shocked when a teacher from a neighboring (and larger) county told us that we had been ridiculed for withdrawing from the P-TA. She questioned Mr. Ladd's motive in speaking to our groups and doubted that he actually had ever been one of your "right hand men."

We would appreciate a statement from you in regard to his qualifications for warning us of subversive activities and tendencies in the U. S.

Thank you so much. Our best wishes to you and your tremendously important organization.

Very truly yours,

SOAP BOX.. In these days of corruption in high places with its Bobby Bakers, its Billie Sol Estes, its payolas, its crooked quiz games, with its involvement of Governors, Cabinet Members and even Presidents, it is indeed refreshing to hear from a representative of one branch of our government which is 100% dedicated and 100% incorruptable--the F B.I

It isn't a small group--approximately 16,000 employees including about 600 special agents

For more than four decades the magnificent record of this politically-free agency is the reflection of the ideals and principles of one man- - J Edgar Hoover

The name of Mr Hoover brings memories to me- as I am sure it does to every father who has brought a son thru teen age. To them Mr Hoover was revered He was their hero I recall my son's room, his Eagle Scout award, his fraternity membership certificate and a picture of J Edgar Hoover were the only things on the walls. College degree, athletic awards, pictures of winning teams were carefully placed in bureau drawers, as if they detracted from the things he wanted displayed

What manner of man is J Edgar Hoover This person who has guided a Bureau for more than four decades without a breath of scandal and whose Bureau each year has recovered money and property equal to more than ten times their annual budget?

I believe that he is what Jethro had in mind when he told Moses in Exodus 18 21 "an able man, such as fear God, a man of truth, hating covetousness "

"Chuck" Harding's talk was excellent and intensely interesting and I am sure that he will not object to our saying that it was doubly enjoyable because he represented the Bureau headed by J. Edgar Hoover

D. Milton Ladd Dies, FBI Agent 25 Years

D Milton Ladd, 56, an FBI agent for more than 25 years, died in an automobile accident near Sanford, Fla, yesterday.

Mr Ladd was en route to Daytona Beach with his wife from their home in Geneva when the accident occurred. Mrs Ladd was injured in the crash and is in the Seminole Memorial Hospital, Sanford

At the time of his retirement from the Federal Bureau of Investigation in 1954, Mr Ladd, or Mickey, as he was known to his associates, was considered the No 3 man in the organization. He had the title of assistant to the director of the FBI.

Early FBI Member

One of the earliest members of the Bureau, Mr. Ladd became a special agent on November 5, 1928. In later years he told a reporter that he joined the FBI not out of any romantic notions but because he thought the FBI would "mature" him

He had come to Washington in 1921 when his father, Edwin Fremont, North Dakota. He worked for a while in his father's office and then took a patronage job running the subway car between the Senate and the Senate Office Building.

At nights he attended George Washington University Law School, graduating in 1928 Mr Ladd said that he looked too young to get any clients—even with a moustache he had grown. He postponed returning to North Dakota for two years to achieve his "maturity" but he never made it into law

"I liked it too much to quit," he said of the FBI

His first assignment took him to Butte, Mont, and then in rapid succession, he served in New Orleans, St Louis, St Paul, Washington and Chicago.

Mr Ladd never liked to talk about cases in which he participated. Although it was known that he had taken significant roles in capturing many of the leading gangsters in the '30's, he said on his retirement, "I don't approve of people who go out and write books"

D. MILTON LADD

Led Security Unit

In 1939 Mr Ladd became the assistant director in charge of the FBI's Identification Division and Laboratory. In 1941, when the United States entered World War II, Mr Ladd was named the head of the important Security Division. His main job during the war was in tracking down Nazi agents in the Western Hemisphere

When asked about his role during the war, he answered, "If you like it well enough to talk about it, you should stay in it"

He was named J. Edgar

Hoover's assistant in ~~the~~ job ~~which~~ gave him over-all supervision of all the FBI's investigative activities in both criminal and subversive fields. He took personal roles in rounding up several Soviet spies, and in such celebrated cases as the Greenlease kidnaping.

Upon his retirement, Mr Hoover said, "I have relied upon you over the years and I could not let this opportunity pass without again expressing my deep appreciation for your loyal efforts on behalf of the bureau"

Mr Ladd was born in Fargo, N Dak, and attended public schools in that State. In Washington, he married the former Katherine Pfeiffer. At the time of his retirement he lived at 5235 Nebraska avenue N W, but he soon moved to Florida

His wife is the only survivor
